AlanyaByg is owned by two experienced constructor Consulting engineer Jesper Arffmann and master builder Jan Servé.

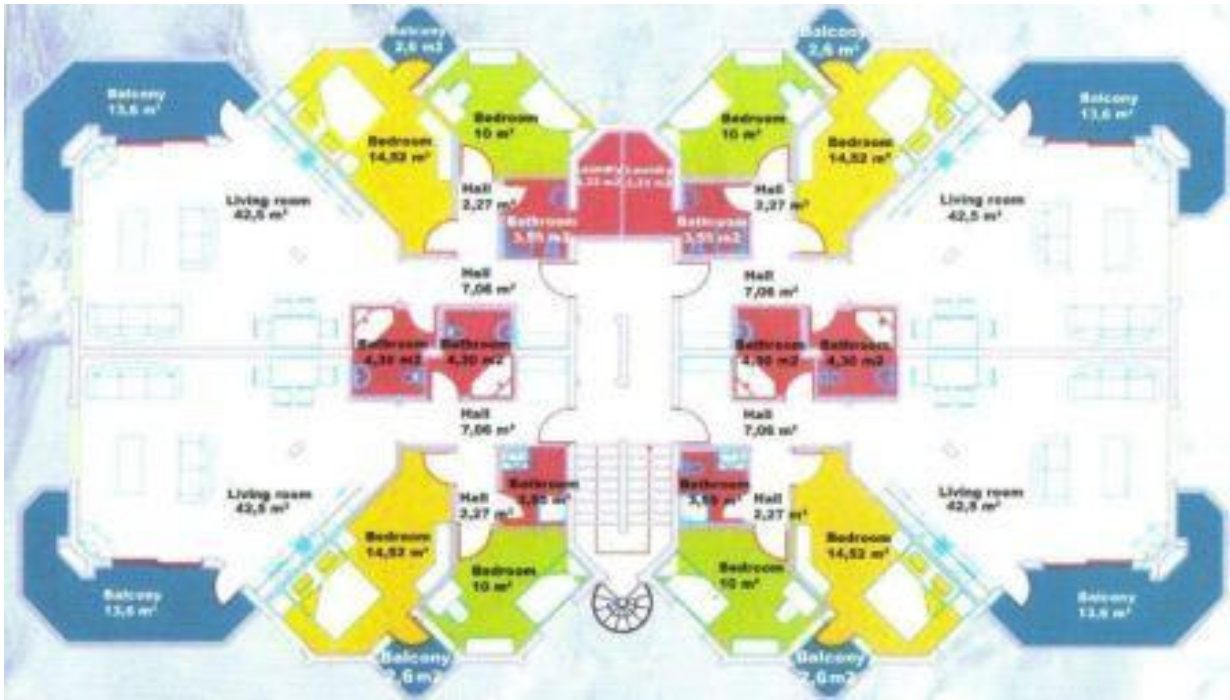

We have since project plan used Danish norms where possible, and we have been at construction constantly for a period of 8 month, inspecting the work and instructing the staff.

When we write Danish Constructors it is not only persons with Danish investment inspecting that the building arises. We know the construction in details and know the quality is very high.

However – if there is a problem, you do not have to deal with a Turkish Constructor through a translator – you can come directly to us.

And all paperwork is done by one of most respected law firms in Turkey Ergün & Ergün.
All together – where do you find a safer way buying property in Turkey?

Plan normal apartments. 4 apartments each floor.
